INTERNATIONAL GOURMET FOOD

FESTIVAL

PUERTO RICO SHERATON, SAN JUAN, P. R.

Edward Holland

The International Gourmet Food Festival is dedicated to the food service executive — aimed at assisting him in his increasingly difficult task of selecting and improving the quality of food available to this sophisticated Caribbean area.

This festival displays some of the latest and finest products available in the food industry . . . from customized portion control and primal meat cuts to gourmet-style convenience items — pointing the way to brighter menus and building profits in these sun-kissed islands.
