Dear Ed:

I am pleased to share with you the letter I have written to the President urging your appointment to the delegation on food distribution problems in the Soviet Union.

I am impressed with your credentials, but even more so, I am glad to see your level of commitment and concern. I am confident that you would bring the Soviet Union exactly the type of guidance and skills that are needed at this time, and that you would be a fine representative of the United States.

As soon as I hear any response from The President, I will contact you. Best wishes.

Sincerely,
